

Blanket Student Professional Liability

The Student Blanket Professional Liability Insurance is provided to the students of the Psychology, Multidisciplinary Center, and the Family and Child Services programs.

Coverage is provided by Mercer, a subsidiary of Marsh Affinity Group. The insurance premium is based upon the number of students participating in each academic program. Once EH&S receives the premium invoice, each department is charged a prorated premium based on the number of participants in their program.